Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Sergeant First Class Kirk D. Harrington's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant First Class Harrington has devoted more than 29 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a leader of soldiers, dedicating himself to the assistance of soldiers as the Transportation Movement Coordinator with also many years of support to the Transportation Corp., Golden Coyote Exercises, and Operation Iraqi Freedom; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant First Class Harrington continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Sergeant First Class Kirk D. Harrington for more than 29 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 4, 2010, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-second Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
